

Speaking Up Against Bullying

Bullying or Tattling?

Is this bullying? Should you tell your teacher?

- A student cuts in line one time.
- A student teases another student's haircut and keeps doing it day after day.
- A student hits another student because he won't give her his cookie.
- A student didn't do his homework.
- A student teases another student once by saying his name in a funny way, but never does it again.
- A student keeps calling another student mean names everyday during recess.
- A student eats candy one time in class.
- A student pushes and kicks another student.
- A student is chewing gum during art class.
- A student gives another student a mean look.
- A student tells other students not to play with someone.

Download at thoughtfullearning.com/InFocusK_2/156c.